

DEPUTY GENERAL MANAGER (Operations)

Job Profile:

The incumbent will be reporting to the Chief of Electrical Business and will be responsible for leading the respective teams to achieve budgetary targets of turnover, profits for a sustainable growth. He will execute business strategies against agreed growth plans of the Company by product, production & resource planning.

Job Description

- Head manufacturing operations, liaise with Marketing, HR, Finance and other functions to prepare budgets and ensure achievement of targets by timely execution of orders
- Inculcate continuous improvement culture at all levels and provide leadership to take up such improvement projects involving productivity, house keeping, cost reduction, product quality and quality of work life.
- Resource planning in line with the Company's corporate goals in coordination with Marketing, Applications Research group, Finance & HR.
- Bring about customer focus in all business activities

Qualification:

An Engineering Graduate, preferably with an MBA.

Experience:

The candidate should have around 15-20 years experience in the Electrical sector with thorough knowledge of market conditions, contacts with customers. He should be a person with proven track record.

Age :

Preferably below 54 years